

MOHAMMAD HAMEED

moimprovement@gmail.com | www.mimprovement.me | Github | LinkedIn

Skills

LANGUAGES: HTML/CSS, Javascript, SQL, Python, C++, Shell, R

TOOLS: Linux, Github, Atom, Jira, Android Studio

TECHNOLOGY: Flask, MongoDB, Git, jQuery, NodeJS, Selenium

Experience

VOOD

Toronto, ON

FOUNDER

Winter 2019

- Pitched and accepted to University of Toronto's startup incubator, The Hub
- Collaborated with software team by implementing UI designs and reviewed the to ensure software build matches design specifications
- Made strategic design and user-experience decisions based on qualitative and quantitative research results
- Formulated marketing strategy to minimize customer acquisition costs and build brand recognition

SYMANTEC

Waterloo, ON

QA Engineer Intern

Fall 2017

- Worked as a tester on Management Centre, a web application that allows users to access and control Symantec's suite of other products
- Created, executed and maintained automated testing using the Selenium framework, effecting 3x increase in speed
- Efficiently logged and tracked defects in JIRA and Bugzilla
- Attended Sprint Planning meetings and liaised the development team to ensure patches and version updates met timeline targets
- Developed and provided testing metrics and reports for the QA dashboard to effectively communicate test status to the test team and management

Projects

INSTAKOUNT — Winter 2018

- Designed and developed a responsive web app that leverages the Instagram API and AJAX methods to count the total likes of a user's most recent photos.

LENDR — Winter 2016

- Developed an Android application using TD's API to transfer money between users
- Used the Flask framework and SQL to build the backend of the application
- Designed and developed the landing page that explains the functionality of the application using HTML, CSS, and Javascript

Education

University of Toronto

Toronto, ON

Honours BSc, Statistics

2016-2021